Scott Tuxbury
Vice President | Retirement Plan Advisory
Cambridge Trust

Scott Tuxbury is the Vice President of Retirement Plan Advisory at Cambridge Trust. Scott has dedicated his career to help plan sponsors navigate the ever-changing world of ERISA for over 20 years and takes great pride in helping employers strategize on how to manage and deliver a “Best in Class” retirement program, this includes Fee Benchmarking, Investment Analysis, Fiduciary Governance, Employee Education, and Operational Compliance. Clients have said, he has a thoughtful and caring approach to delivering retirement plan advisory services.

Scott is a strategic thinker who enjoys being asked to present at various industry conferences on topics relating to Fee Benchmarking, Employee Education & Engagement, and Operational Compliance. His experience as former President of SEC registered RIA and has held executive positions within the record keeping divisions of Fidelity Investments and Franklin Templeton. His 25+ years of experience affords our clients unique understanding of how the retirement industry works.